Finale
By Pablo Neruda

Matilde, years or days
sleeping, feverish,
here or there,
gazing off,
twisting my spine,
bleeding true blood,
perhaps I awaken
or am lost, sleeping:
hospital beds, foreign windows,
white uniforms of the silent walkers,
the clumsiness of feet.

And then, these journeys
and my sea of renewal:
your head on the pillow,
your hands floating
in the light, in my light, over my earth.

It was beautiful to live
when you lived!

The world is bluer and of the earth at night, when I sleep enormous, within your small hands.
